THE WOMAN'S LAW CLASS.

GRADUATION EXERCISES TO DE HELD APRIL 4-ESSAYS IN COMPETITION FOR A PRIZE. The Woman's Law Class of the University of the City of New-York will hold its commencement exercises on the evening of April 4 in the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall. The class consists of eighty-one members-more than double last year's class. The chancellor's certificates will be presented, it is expected, to more than sixty of the members. The examinations were held Friday evening. The certificates are made out to nonmatriculants and business women, and denote that the graduates are eligible to membership in the regular law course of the university. Mrs. Ed-ward Addison Greeley is acting president of the Woman's Legal Education Society, which endowed the chair of the Woman's Law Class four years

to. Mrs. Greeley said yesterday: "Four annual classes have been formed and the able incumbent of the chair, Professor Isaac Rus sell, of the Law University, has, within the last two years, instructed 150 women students, nine of whom have since been graduated with the university degree of LL. B., and tweive more will take the degree in June. Five have been admitted to the bar and four have established private lecture courses to other women. The prize of 10 which I offered personally to the writer of the best thesis on the subject: 'What Have Been the Potent Factors in Moulding Modern Law?' has been contested for by twelve students, and one of the most eminent judges on the bench, who is examining the papers, writes me that he is surprised at the intelligent treatment of the subject by the competitors.' whom have since been graduated with the uni-Miss Helen Gould is one of the non-matriculants. | Woolsey Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Oler. ATLANTIC CITY'S RUSH OF GUESTS.

THEY DON'T WAIT FOR EASTER TO CROWD THE HOTELS AND COTTAGES.

Atlantic City, N. J., March 23 (Special) .- As Eas-Lakewood, N. J., March 23 (Special).—The most successful Lenten season which Lakewood has ever known is now at its height. In all records of prosperous days preceding Easter there is no mention of such a prolonged period of crowded rooms as has prevalled for the last three weeks at the Laurel-inthe-Pines and the Laurel House. The Lakewood has a full complement of guests, and, like the other hotels, an excellent hooking list. ter is yet three weeks hence the present well-filled cendition of the hotels and cottages can be regarded only as a mere foretaste of what may be expected of the coming season. All the spring hotels are open for business; the various amusement enterprises, booths, bazaars, etc., have re-sumed their catering, and the private cottages are being reoccupied rapidly. New-Yorkers are the great majority of visitors here at present, and no one train carries to the shore more passengers than the through New-York express, which arrives has a full complement of guests, and, like the other hotels, an excellent booking list.

The Lakewood Hunt Club, which will undoubtedly be organized this week, has for its promoters Dr. C. L. Lindley, Clarence B. Mitchell, H. Hayden Sands, R. J. Stephenson, Colonei W. W. Tompkins, James Converse, Jasper Lynch and George J. Gould. While it is not proposed to make any long runs at present, the club has had two preliminary rides of about clich, miles even this week. daily at 5:29 p. m.
The ordinance passed by the City Council providing for the widening of Atlantic City's boardwalk to twice its present dimensions is expected to be in operation during the coming week, and when the work is completed that structure will be of about eight miles each this week.

The Golf Club, which is a comparatively new orcanization, has sprung at once into popular favor. the finest of its kind along the New-Jersey coast. The links of the Lakewood Ciub have now a wide-spread reputation as being next the finest in the State. Every week brings some new enthusiast or party to face the links. Golfers at the Laurel-in-the-Pines this week include H. W. McVickar, the artist, and Mrs. McVickar, Mr. and Mrs. George Bird, Miss Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Robbins Walker, F. E. Baldwin, J. W. Chadwick, Ashton Potter, W. A. Wheelock, of New-York, and Justus Hotchkiss, of New-Haven.

The Colonial Kettledrum, which was held last The demand upon its capacity during the last season has made this improvement an imperative ne-cessity. The new ocean pler in course of construction at the eccan end of the boardwalk has now reached the length of 100 feet, and it is proposed to continue it to a point 560 feet beyond high-water mark. In addition to a pavilion on this semimarine structure, a bicycle railway will be built on its west side, extending its entire length, as well as a large observation wheel.

Nathan L. Hohn, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Hohn, is here for a three weeks' sojourn. T. J. Creamer, ex-member of Congress, of New-York, is at the Hotel Revere.

York, and Justus Hotchkiss, of New-Haven.

The Colonial Kettledrum, which was held last Saturday afternoon in the parish house of All Saints' Memorial Church by the Woman's Aid Society, was, if possible, even more of a success than the pretty sales of former seasons. Essentially patriotic decorations, arranged by Mrs. Jasper Lynch, were formed entirely by flags, with medallion pottraits of George and Martha Wash. Allen J. Among the popular hotels opened the last week was the Hotel Berkeley, one of Atlantic City's newest beach front houses. The Berkeley is still under the management of Messrs. George and James Bew, who since last season have added many notable improvements to its interior, as well as additional charm to its outside appearance.

The old established Hotel Kenderton, under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Neall, opened its doors for the season this week. During the winter the house has been thoroughly renovated, and an especial attraction in the shape of a commodious sun parlor has been added to its appointments.
